

September 25, 2023

This is the 4th week of the 1st quarter. We have just one more week until mid-quarter progress reports are issued. They will go home next Monday in the Parent Envelopes.

Progress Reports will go out next Monday. If your child has homework, please make sure you are reading and signing your child's homework slip. It is our mission to have every student meet their goals each quarter, if a student is not completing their homework assignments it will be difficult for them to meet their goals.

For an absence or tardy to be excused, students must have a parent or doctor's note.

SYATP See You At The Pole is this Wednesday! We will meet at 7:30 a.m. on Wednesday, September 27 (please have your student at school at 7:25 a.m.). All students will gather around the flagpole in the courtyard—parents, you are welcome to stay. Remember, students who attend are allowed to wear jeans with either a SYATP shirt OR an RCA shirt. Afterward, we will have snacks for LC 5-7 in the chapel and for LC 1-3 in the fellowship hall.

Coloring Contest The Rosanky Community Center asked our students if they would like to participate in a coloring contest. All coloring sheets have been submitted! When we know the results we will share them with you. I am very proud of all the students who participated in the contest, it was wonderful to see their creativity.

Grandparents/Grandfriends Day Parents, if you have not signed up, or if you are unsure what to bring, please contact your child's teacher. Students will be dismissed from their classroom at 11:45 a.m., to join their Grandparents/Grandfriends for lunch. Parents, to help us prepare in time, we kindly ask everyone to drop off food in the morning or please have it here no later than 11 a.m.

We understand some students may have grandparents who are no longer with us, so we encourage them to invite their Grandfriends!

Students can leave with their grandparents/grandfriends after lunch. If they are not on the Student Release Form, please send a note to the teacher.

Early Release Friday This Friday is an early release day. If your child is not going home with a grandparent they will need to be picked up at 2 pm.

Have a blessed week,

JR Regalado
